

As a prospective Cap-Tel user, I am waiting eagerly for this service to begin in California. It is absolutely vital for my communication and employment needs as a Deaf speaking person who cannot hear very much on the phone. It will enable me to have ACCESS to normal conversation on a real time basis with business associates, friends, and family members. Please support the important development in getting this established in California, specially on a trial basis ASAP. Thank you very much. David Rose